

UNIT 1: WORLDVIEW

LESSON 2 – BIBLICAL WORLDVIEW

Introduction

- What a Biblical worldview is and how it differs from any other worldview
- A biblical worldview leads to actions that reflect who God is

Scripture Focus

1 Samuel 16:1-7

Matthew 10:27-28

Anchor Statement

Having a biblical worldview means allowing the Word of God to shape what someone believes is true rather than human wisdom or experience.

OVERVIEW

Every person develops a worldview over the course of their lives

Context and Details

1 and 2 Samuel and Matthew

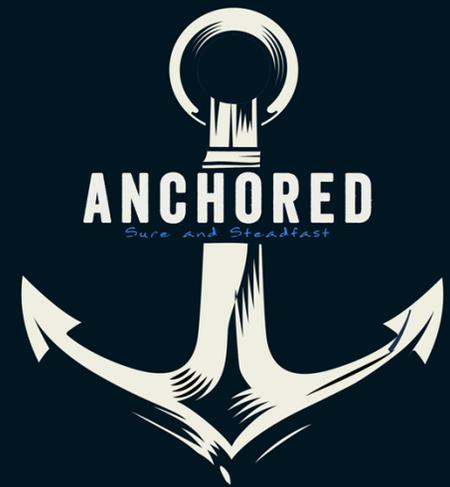

Author

Time frame

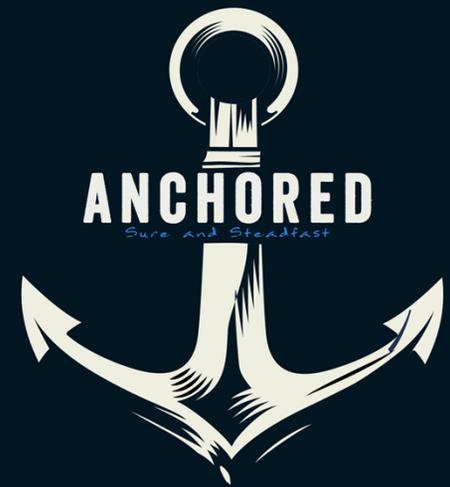

Purpose

THE SETTING

THE MAIN POINT

THE LEAD IN

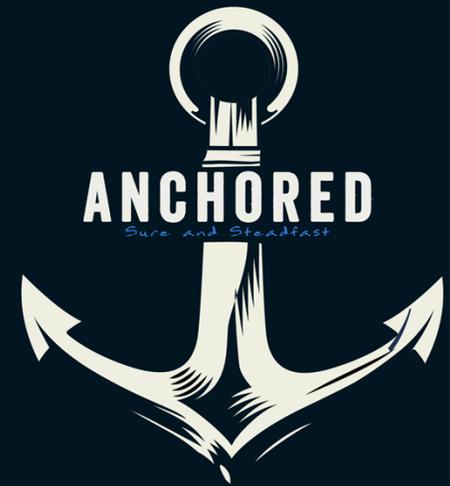

Goal

Understand how the Bible changes worldview

Demonstration

Salt versus Sugar

THE MAIN EVENT

1 Samuel 16:1-2

Watching

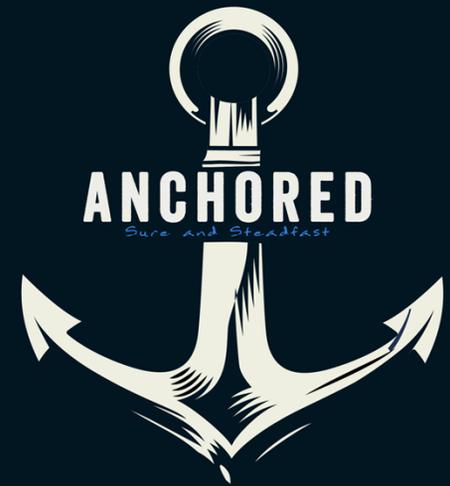

What are some things that Samuel might have seen in other kings?

1 Samuel 16:1-2

Believing

What are some beliefs that Samuel might have had based on those descriptions?

1 Samuel 16:6-7

Believing

How does God's Word redirect Samuel's beliefs about who the next king should be?

1 Samuel 16:6-7

Doing

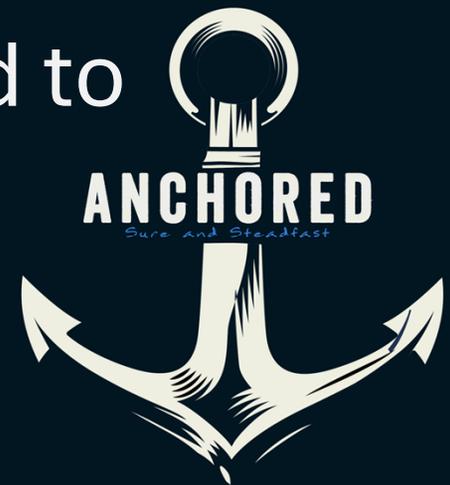

What would have happened if Samuel had allowed his experiences and the influence of the world dictate his beliefs?

1 Samuel 16:10-13

What does Samuel do that shows us he was committed to following God?

What do his actions communicated to you about what he believes?

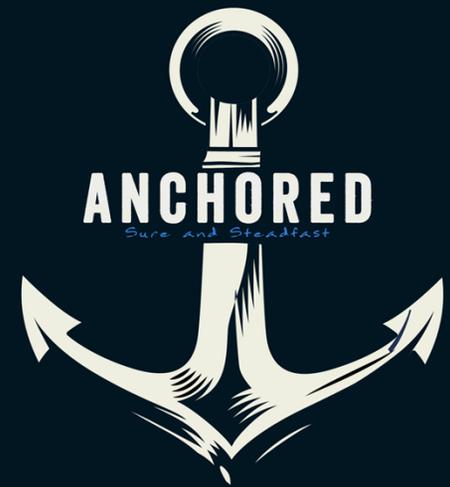

Matthew 10:27-28

What belief do you think Jesus is trying to change here?

THE LAST WORD

1 Peter 2:9-10

Viewing our world through God's lenses

We were in darkness

He brought us into His marvelous light

